

July
2004

Chips & Salsa

Krevers in Queretaro

Mira Micaiah

Good News!

Coca-Rogelio and I have been going through the Mexican version of Starting Point (a seekers study) for a few months now and recently we began reading the book of John as well. He continues to grow in his desire to have God work through him and change his heart to the heart of Christ. It is so encouraging as he is thining about how God can impact his friends, family and work.

The Mexican Super Bowl!

Our American football team made it to the playoffs for the 1st time in 5 years. In the semi-finals we played the dreaded Sentinal, a military team from Mexico city. It was a hard fought battle and they ended up winning 11-6, but next year they better look out for the Queretaro LIBERTADORES!

Queretario Quickies

- 3 - # of interns that have stayed with us over the past month
- 3 - # of times we've been in the city paper
- 2 - # of times a week Julian & Rogelio (Coca) hang our
- 6 - # of Mexicans working in the coffee house
- 1 - # of local churches wanted to start an outreach cafe
- 2 - # of times Micaiah has donned her bathing suit
- 4 - # of bulls we saw killed at local bullfight

INTERN CRAZY!

Dena an intern from Canada stayed with us for a few weeks as she worked each night at the cafe, gave english classes and connected with Students.

We now have 5 summer interns here to help us with the ministry. Emily from Whitney's parents church in Covington and Kristin from Idaho stayed with us for the 2nd week. They are going through orientation, training and of course street taco initiation!

Anniversary

The weekend of June 19th was our 5-year anniversary. We headed out to Morelia Mexico, a city about 3 hours southwest of Queretaro. We drove through the little Mexican towns at 5 miles an hour (I about lost my patience a few times...ok well I did go through culture shock just a little) and arrived at a beautiful city a little bigger then our own.

We stayed just off the main square and from our bedroom we could see the tower of the city cathedral. It was a great anniversary trip and it was fun to wake up Sunday morning to my first father's day as well.

Special Thanks to Benny and the Numbers!

No folks that is not a new hip band, but Whitney's father who helped Julian on the accounting of the business plan when her parents were here in Queretaro for a week. Julian had been pulling his hair out and Benny simply set-up all the financial spreadsheets needed with formulas for the business plan! Thank God for Benny & Alice!

www.krevere.com
(Reference new stuff!)